

DO YOU HAVE A PASSION FOR THE ARTS?

Do you have a passion for the arts and the 'ear' of your community?

Have you got what it takes to give a voice to their views?

If you want to see the arts and creativity make a difference to your area we'd love to hear from you!

Community-minded residents from the Somer Valley and Foxhill areas are being invited to apply for a role as a Community Representative on the Arts Development Co-Producers Group

Community Representatives will provide valuable expertise and experience to help inform the arts development commissions in their area.

The role includes:

- Assist in the interview process for arts providers wanting to deliver the artistic programme
- Work together to co-produce the artistic programme
- Assess the quality of the programme and its impact on the community
- Promote the role of the arts in community development
- All relevant training and mentoring will be provided

You must be able to commit to:

- Training Day: Monday 27th November 2017
- Contractor Interviews: 4th – 8th December 2017(exact times tbc)
- One meeting per month during 2018
- A two-weekly catch-up conversation with the Cultural Producers
- Meeting with Artists and the community and attending arts events as and when necessary

This is a voluntary post and expenses plus travel will be paid per meeting. Applicants must be 16+ Shortlisted applications will be invited to attend an informal interview on Monday 20th November

To apply please complete and submit the application form to:
oliver@creativityworks.org.uk or send/hand-in to Creativity Works,
Leigh House, 1 Wells Road, Radstock, BA3 3RN

The closing date for applications is 12:00 noon on 15th November 2017

